All prices are starting points. Every wedding is individually quoted following our first conversation, with a clear, considered breakdown.

From first ideas to the finished article.

i. The Conversation

A relaxed call or meeting where I listen to all the details — your story, your venue, the feeling you want your day to hold, and the vibe you're creating.

ii. The Proposal

A detailed, illustrated proposal tailored to your day — flowers, colours, design ideas, and a clear breakdown.

iii. The Design Phase

We refine, edit, evolve. Full liaison with your venue, planner and photographer. I source the season's best blooms and prepare for the big week leading up to your wedding day.

iv. The Wedding Day

From early-morning on-site installation, to the delivery of the bouquets — the smile, the tears, the chin wobble from the bride. It never gets old. It's our favourite part of the day.

v. After

Take-down, collection or repurposing of florals where possible for you to keep, and a thank-you note. It's always an absolute pleasure being involved in your wedding day.

"Always leave space for the butterflies to dance."
